PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Selangor is a state that has the right ingredients to make up for an ideal business landscape in Malaysia. It is an economic powerhouse contributing to nearly one quarter of Malaysia's gross domestic product. Focusing on the five core clusters of electrical and electronics, transport equipment, life sciences, food and beverages, manufacturing and machinery and equipment. Selangor aims to be an attractive cosmopolitan that is filled with a beacon of abundance and prosperity.

Turkey is a prominent centre of attraction for international investors with broad production potentials, qualified manpower, strategic location, modern logistics infrastructure and incentive packages that cater to any needs. Turkey has the required means to access a giant market of 1.3 billion people and US$26 trillion worth of trade volume with a four-hour flight radius.

This webinar is to attract and promote investors from Turkey to Selangor and vice versa, as well as to explore mutual investment and trade opportunities and discuss economic challenges faced during the pandemic.

Objectives:

- Share of investment and trade opportunities in Turkey and Selangor.
- To promote Selangor as an investment destination in Malaysia and a regional investment hub in ASEAN.
- To share the existence of the industrial ecosystem in Selangor.
- Economic challenges faced during the COVID-19 pandemic (sharing info between Turkey and Selangor).

The session will explore:

- Information pertaining to investment opportunities from both Turkey and Selangor.
- Current challenges in economic activities and trading. This includes government regulations, restrictions and easy access to market.
- Specific sectors that are beneficial for both parties to venture.
